Students Representing our School

This week we have several activities occurring which involves children representing our school. Being a school representative is a great honour. Our thanks, congratulations and support go with the following.

Soccer

Both Dylan Newbold and Harrison Frendo are in Sydney trialling to be members of the State Soccer teams. Both boys are very talented sportspersons and have very good chances. I saw they were mentioned yesterday in the Newcastle Herald.

StarStruck

On Monday our troupe of 16 dancers attended the first of several rehearsals in a lead up to the big event starting on Friday 14th June.

Law Week

Yesterday a team of Year 6 children challenged students from several other schools in a mock trial at Belmont courthouse to celebrate law week. I am very pleased to advise they came second from a field of 10. The principal of Callaghan College, who was there with a High School team, took the time to contact me this morning to advise of the quality of our team.

Netball

Today our netball girls defeated Valentine School in the second round of the State Knockout Netball competition.

■ The primary boys football championships also starts today at Bass Hill with 14 teams taking part in the three-day event.
The side includes: Cameron Frazer (Cessnock West), Harrison Frendo and Dylan Newbold (Hillsborough), Jakob Cresnar (Redhead), Isaac Robinson and Liam McDonald (Eleebana), Dean Larson (Jewells), Alexander Hilton (Wallsend South), Sascha Montefiore (The Junction), Callum Gabriel and Matthew Burton (Thornton), Jackson Pereira (Valentine), Dylan Williams (Elmore Vale) and Jacob Campbell (Belmont).

Chickens

There's great excitement in the Year 2 rooms at the moment as the children get to watch the arrival of the chickens.

Students for 2014

Please remember to let friends, relatives, neighbours and so on that we are currently taking the names of children seeking enrolment here for 2014.
